What a weird co-incidence- I was thinking of calling you about the same subject! I will explain why when we speak.

I am around for the new two weeks, and indeed in the office today and free until 3 if that helps?

If not, I will ask [REDACTED] to find us some other times

Subject: Hi there!

Ian,

How are you? I hope you're well and thriving.

If you have any time, I would really appreciate an informal chat about arts sponsorship etc.

Quite topical at the moment!

If that's OK, do you have any availability coming up, for either a phone call, or if it works, a quick coffee?

I fully appreciate you may well be taking a well-earned rest [REDACTED]

Best wishes
